February 2011

Dear Prayer Warriors,

The Lord sure is blessing! He has opened a door allowing for a second time each week to have a Bible study and prayer with the legislators, and now a time to have a Bible study with the staff of the Capitol as well.

In January, there was an impromptu opportunity to preach at Senator Higdon's annual prayer meeting in Marion County. The Lord richly blessed and used the sermon that day to reach some other legislators with the gospel message. God also provided opportunities to preach in Lexington and Lancaster last month and we're excited about the meetings set for February. There are still several dates open in 2011 and I look forward to filling those up as God sees fit.

The whole family is pitching in to get everything ready for "Preachers' Day at the Capitol" set for Feb. 8 in Frankfort. The day starts in Annex Room 125 at 8:30 with a complimentary breakfast and the first speaker at 9. We will hear from the Family Foundation, legislators, and gubernatorial candidates. Please keep this day in heavy prayer as we are facing strong opposition from those who want God removed from everything. This opposition is expected; it's not as though we expect the devil to just give up. I would be suspicious if he did. II Corinthians 3:17 says, "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." It seems the more we remove the Lord from America the less liberty we have. Because of this, I pray that God's men from throughout the state will make it a priority to come to Frankfort to show that God still cares what happens in America.

Our family is so very thankful for those of you who keep us in your daily prayers. In these battles, it is encouraging to know someone is seeking God's face on our behalf.
